AFA Prepares To Launch National Sports Networking Campaign

ATHLETES FOR AMERICA Founder, Billy McGehee announced today that AFA would accelerate its efforts to negotiate emergency preparedness networking partnerships with Star Athletes, sports teams, leagues, organizations and associations who are interested in becoming part of the AFA national emergency preparedness initiative. The AFA national emergency preparedness initiative will focus primarily on promoting emergency preparedness awareness in communities all across America while networking with Athletes, sports teams, leagues, organizations and associations who are seriously interested in getting trained and certified as first responders in CPR, First Aid, AED usage and hopefully, Community Emergency Response Team training (CERT).
